How to pay for bus fare

• Cash only Please have coins or 1,000-yen bills ready before boarding.

* Change cannot be given by the bus driver when paying, so if you do not have the exact fare on you, use the change machine attached to the fare box on board. Please note that large bills such as ¥2,000, ¥5,000, and ¥10,000 bills are not accepted by the machine.

• IC Cards for Transportation

* When using the same IC card to pay for multiple passengers or children's fares, inform the driver of the number of passengers and whether they are adults or children before scanning your card.

Important Information

- Skis and snowboards must be stored in cases or bags.
- Set your mobile phone to silent mode and refrain from making calls on board.
- Place personal belongings at your feet and do not block the aisle.
- Please take your trash with you.

How to board the bus

Board the bus at the front doors (1). Pay your fare when boarding.

- When paying by IC card, scan your IC card on the card reader.
- When paying by cash, insert your fare into the fare box.

Exiting the bus

You can exit through the front doors (1) or the middle doors (2)

- Please have 1,000-yen bills and 500-yen coins ready beforehand.
- No change will be given by the bus driver.
- If you don't have the exact amount, use the change machine attached to the fare box on board. Please note that large bills such as ¥2,000, ¥5,000, and ¥10,000 bills are not accepted by the machine.
- When using the same IC card to pay for multiple passengers or children's fares, inform the driver of the number of passengers and whether they are adults or children before scanning your card.
